Please use a thick dark-colored pen to draw your map, then submit it at City Hall or by email to districting@covinaca.gov. You can hand deliver, mail, fax, scan and email, or photograph and email your map.

Each number indicates the total population of that 'population unit' area. Each district must have essentially equal population. The population of each of the 5 districts should be between 9,775 and 10,803.

An online version of this map that allows you to zoom in and out for more detail is available as a link from the project website: <https://mapcovina.org/>

Would have appreciated the demographic information to be sure the information corresponded with perceived neighborhoods. So have put together multiple maps with a few versions hoping to see how they are graded. Also want to be sure that if any were disqualified for one reason or another, that others put together differently would survive

The kit was a bit clunky, but here is my first attempt. Happy to hear feedback on any disqualifying features in time to update. Hoping can be graded before the next meeting on the subject to give time for potential revision.

Description:

Green District -Eastern Badillo Corridor. Stretching south of the railroad tracks east of Grand. Encompassing larger homes and higher income areas of town, including Covina Hills.

Purple District - North east corner of town that shares similar construction and feel

Blue District - Southern edge of the city. Has more renters than other areas, grand is a very stark divide as far as neighborhood feel. Shared interests around shopping and freeway districts.

Teal District - Central corridor encompassing downtown district. Typically older construction and highly influenced by the Badillo corridor.

Red District - North west corner of town surrounding Hollenbeck Park, highly influenced by Arrow and Azusa highways.

I realize using the tracks between green and purple differently than the population grid, but it more accurately reflects the change of neighborhood. So the exact count for each will have to be calculated. These areas are mostly commercial with the exception of the north west corner of the 1,159 grid. Which will slightly lower the green population and raise the purple. Resulting in a more balanced population than the stated count.

District voting order:

Using the most recent available data, it appears those up for election in 2024 currently reside in the green and red districts. So those would remain in place for the cycle. Placing the purple, teal, and blue districts up for 2022 vote.
